With a complete, job-ready LinkedIn profile even before they graduate, INTI students have the perfect platform to build and enhance their personal brand.

RAISING THE BAR OF EXCELLENCE

While many professions perform deeds of great service to humanity, few are esteemed as serving the people in the hallowed courts of justice. Undertaking the UK Degree Transfer Law Programme arms a graduate with more than just the knowledge necessary to become a successful legal practitioner. The programme cultivates an analytical mindset that allows graduates to draw critical conclusions in an impartial and effective manner while enabling graduates to persuasively and critically reason and argue ideas in the written word and in eloquent discourse alike.

The knowledge and skills imparted are not only useful in legal practice but in other endeavours as well, acting as a strong foundation and a springboard for graduates to pursue careers in other fields beyond practising law. Graduates from INTI have found great success in other fields including the business arena, the arts, journalism, education and even the public sector as well.
